CLARK MONUMENT TO BE UNVEILED SUNDAY.

Ceremonies at Bellefoutaine Ceme tery Will Be Attended by Descendants of Famous Pioneer.

nument to the memory of General and Governor William Clark, of Lowis and Clark and pioneer fame, will be day with most of the direct descendants nument, which is one of the finest of a historical nature ever crected in the United States, stands near the graves of the famous pioneer and his son, Jefferson Kearny Clark, and is the result of a bequest in the latter's will.

Mrs. Jefferson Kearny Clark has personally conducted the perpetuating of her father-in-law's name and fame in bronze and marble, and will be present, as will Mrs. Julia Clark Voorhis, a granddaughter of General Clark, and her daughter, Miss Eleanor Giasgow Clark. John O'Fallen Clark, of No. 534 Cabanne avenue, who is one of the only two living grandsons of General Clark, and his family will also be present. His married daughters are: Mrs. V. C. Turner, Cabanne piace; Mrs. A. C. Church, Lenox place; and Mrs. E. L. Adreon, Jr., Cabanne piace: The children living at the family home are: William Glasgow Clark, John O'Fallon Clark, Jr., and George Rogers Clark. Mrs. Sadie Clark Ellis of Cabanne piace is also another direct descendant of General Clark, who will be at the unveiling. The monument, which was began about two years ago, is a direct departure in architectural lines from any now in existence. The financial outlay amounted to a good figure, and one of the best sculptors of the day. William Ordway Partridge of New York City, was chosen to do the bronze bust of heroic size. The granite work was designed by Mr. Cottail of New York and inaugurated by Mr. Simpson, also of New York City, but the base and bust were completed without any connection with each other. In the granite base is inscribed a brief history in dates of General Clark.

Ane ceremonies, which will not be for the general public, but for the relatives and friends of the family only, have not been fully decided upon, but several prominent St. Louisans will probably participate. President Francis will attend, if possible, as will General Bates. Mayor Wells is also expected. in the United States, stands near the

VISITATION RALLY OPENS AT CABANNE

Former Students Attend Alumnae Reunion-Exercises Preceded by Religious Services.

Three hundred former students of the Visitation Academy, in Cabanne, attended the first rally of the alumnae reunion esterday. The exercises were preceded by religious services in the chapel of the institution, which consisted of a solemn pontifical high mass, celebrated by Arch-bishop Glennon, and assisted by the Very Reverend Father O. J. S. Hoog. V. G., as archpriest. The deacons of honor were the Reverend Fathers D. S. Phelan and P. W. Talion. The Reverend Fathers J. J. O'Brien and F. J. O'Connor, respectively, were deacon and subdeacon of the

P. W. Talion. The Reverend Fathers J. J. O'Brien and F. J. O'Comnor, respectively, were deacon and subdeacon of the mass.

At the close of the mass the Archbishop addressed the members of the Alumnae Association. His Grace was followed by Mrs. A. J. Lindsay, president of the organization. The time intervening until luncheon was spent in renewing former acquaintances. Many of the graduates had not seen each other for years. They came from the four corners of the United States, and when all had gathered together they acted just as they claimed they felt, "sweet sixteen."

Luncheon was served in the convent refectory, which had been garnished for the occasion with cut flowers and paims. Mrs. Mary Phelps Montgomery presided in the capacity of toastmistress, and responses were made by Mrs. Mary L. Hertich of St. Genevieve. Her subject was one of particular interest and concerned the first convent occupied by the sistors in this part of country at Kasknskia. Mrs. Hertich is the oldest living graduate.

She was followed by Mrs. Dale of Edwardsville, Ill. Her subject was "Echoes of Kasknskia and St. Louis." The last on the list of toasts was Mrs. Shep Cabanne of St. Louis. She gave reminiscences of school days, which frequently convulsed her audience with laughter.

This morning a solemn requiem will be sung by the Very Reverend Father Grimmelsman, S. J., followed by an address. This afternoon the pupils of this year will give a music programme.

Those who attended the luncheon were: Mms. Jans Lindsay, Liby B. Whitecotton, Ames Prendergast, Evans. O. Clarke, Mary L. Herolaki, Ase. Short Shape, Anita Oleto, H. Brolaki, Ase. Short, J. R. Scott, Virginia Brock, V. C. Turner, J. S. Essen, W. A. Maffuire, Clare A. Piant, Frank Ring, Nonle Martin Bannister, Laura Tesson, Mothe Chamberlain, W. O. Smith, George D. Clayton, Myra L. ### SAM WILSON IS RELEASED.

'Lone Train Robber" Finishes Term in State Penitentiary.

Jefferson City, Mo., Sept. 29.—Sam Wilson, the "lone train robber," who single-handed held up a train on which Governor Stone and State Treasurer Stephens, were passengers, May 24, 1894, was liberated from the State Prison to-day, he having served his term.

The hold-up occurred west of Pacific, on the Missouri Pacific Rallway, and was one of the most daring robberies in the history of the State. Wilson's crime so increased the State in general and Governor Stone in particular that is was directly the cause of a change in the law punishing train robbery, whereby the death penalty may be assessed for that offense.

This law was passed at the first session of the Legislature after the commission of the shed. No. 209 Minnesota; 25.90.

cher of the kirkwood Hotel.

—A meeting of the newly elected County Democratic Central Committee will be held in Clayton to-morrow afternoon for the purpose of mapping out a plan of action for the coming campaign. It is probable that the Democrats will assume the offensive this year instead of acting on the defensive, as heretofore.

-Marriage licenses were issued in Clayton yesterday to James H. Reeves and Norma Krech of St. Louis, William R. Black and Blanch Miller of St. Jacoba. Ill., and to Imiah Bennett and Grace S. Pearson of Wilsonville, Neb.

Mrs. Lizzie Edmonds Recovering. Mrs. Lizzie Edmonds of No. 1005 South Sixth street, who was shot by Frank Haubrick of No. 2315 South Third street, early pesterday morning, and is at the City Hospital, has taken a decided turn for the better, and it is thought she will re-cover. It was because Mrs. Edmonds re-fused to secure a divorce from her hus-band, with whom she had not lived for some time, and marry him, that Hau-brick is alleged to have shot her. Haubrick is being held at the Four Courts, awaiting the outcome of Mrs. Ed-monds wounds.
